The text contains the names of all family members, their ages, position in the household, origins, dates of arrival in New Brunswick, and their occupations. Also included are servants, lodgers, transients, and visitors residing in Restigouche County at that time.

The census for the five existing parishes of 1851, are arranged in alphabetical order as: Addington, Colborne, Dalhousie, Durham and Eldon.

INTRODUCTION

The Restigouche County 1851 Census was part of the first General Census of New Brunswick. Legislation passed on March 28, 1850 helped to regulate the census by the instruction of the enumerators on the collection of information, as well as prescribing a form that the returns should take.

The following compilation is taken from the microfilm where the order of enumeration was taken house by house. It should be noted that the Enumerator was not always familiar with the other languages in the parish, and therefore the spelling of the names or trades were often phonetic. The original information has been maintained, including any spelling errors.

Where the handwriting was illegible, the "chosen" name is followed by either a (?) question mark, or () parenthesis containing the "chosen" letter.

An index is placed after each parish, containing the name of every family member with individual name entries for servants, lodgers, transients and visitors.

There is also an index containing all residents of Restigouche County in 1851.

INTRODUCTION

Le recensement de 1851 du Comté de Restigouche faisait partie intégrante du premier recensement général du Nouveau-Brunswick. Une législation passée le 28 mars 1850 aida à régler le recensement avec les instructions aux recenseurs sur la collection des informations, ainsi que normaliser la forme que le relevé devrait avoir.

La compilation suivante est prise du microfilm où l'ordre d'énumération fut prise maison par maison. Il est à noter que le recenseur n'était pas toujours familier avec les autres langues de la paroisse, donc, par conséquent l'orthographe de certains noms et métiers est souvent phonétique. L'information originale a été maintenue, incluant les nombreuses fautes d'orthographe.

Là où l'écriture était illisible, le nom "choisit" est suivi soit par un point d'interrogation (?), ou par des parenthèses () contenant le nom "choisit".

Un index est placé après chaque paroisse contenant le nom de chaque membre de la famille, ainsi que les noms donnés individuellement pour les serviteurs, les pensionnaires, les passagers, et les visiteurs.

Il y a aussi un index contenant tous les résidents du Comté de Restigouche en 1851.
